

ACPA Standards for Dress

ALL STUDENTS MUST FOLLOW ACPA DRESS CODE STANDARDS AT ALL TIMES WHILE ON ACPA CAMPUS.

The standards for dress can be extremely varied, however ACPA believes that certain standards are necessary to maintain an environment conducive to learning. In addition to the standard uniform code, a dress code will also be enforced on special "free dress" days.

Athens Christian Preparatory Academy uses FlynnO'Hara Uniforms (FOH) as its chapel uniform supplier. FOH is located at 1121 Oakland Blvd, Fort Worth, Texas 76103, 817-292-5437, www.flynnohara.com. Other approved uniform vendors are Target Cat and Jack Brand, French Toast, Lands' End, Wal-Mart Wonder Nation Brand, JC Penney Arizona Brand, Gap, Old Navy, Rodeo Monogram Shop and Dickies. Approved school outerwear is available from Athens Screen Printing, FOH and ACPA.

General and Free Dress Policy K-12

- No visible tattoos or body jewelry (except for earrings)
- No torn or dirty clothing
- Long hair is ok (guys and girls), but must NEVER be in your eyes, or look unkempt
- No streaking in hair allowed except for hair colors that could naturally exist
- No hats or caps during school. If cap is on head in the building, the hat or cap will be confiscated and a $15 fine will be assessed. Caps or hats on field trips are ok unless otherwise specified. Design guidelines are the same as for other clothing.
- Shoes must have a closed heel
- Sandals are allowed but must have a heel strap
- Girls should wear modest clothing which is not low-cut, tight, too short, or transparent. No halter, tank, or belly shirts.
- No spaghetti strap shirts or dresses without another garment to cover bra straps. Shorts should be finger-tip length or no shorter than 4" above the knee.
- No hip hugger pants or jeans and no "fashion" holes in jeans
- Boys should wear modest clothing that is not overly baggy, overly tight, too short, or transparent
- No muscle shirts or tank tops and no "fashion" holes in jeans
